CRAFTING THE DERBY GARLAND OF ROSES

SINCE 1987

Since 1987, our Master Florists have crafted the Garland of Roses, the prize given to the winning horse and jockey of the Kentucky Derby. Every year, hundreds gather at the Kroger in Middletown, KY to watch one of the world's most recognized floral arrangements take shape. The Garland gets a police escort to Churchill Downs and is guarded by the U.S. Navy until it's presented to the winner.

BETCHA DON'T KNOW

- 1 The Garland measures 122" X 22", weighs 40 pounds and contains more than 465 Rainforest Alliance Certified "Freedom" Roses.
- 2 It takes about 95 hrs to create the garland with greenery and roses.
- 3 The roses are hand-selected and individually sewn into the backing, each with its own vial of water to keep it fresh.
- 4 A special rose is placed in the crown in the center of the garland which symbolizes the heart and soul it takes to get to the winners circle of the Kentucky Derby.
