From Your Farmers

Tigchelaar Berry Farms

Since 1965 the Tigchelaar family has been growing fresh strawberries. From their beginnings in the Binbrook area in the late 1960's, brothers Dan and Jeff have expanded this family farm in beautiful Niagara, operating what now spans over 200 acres, offering fresh strawberries from May until October. One of the first farms to offer "pick your own" strawberries in the area, more and more acreage was planted in strawberries. Their delicate plump and juicy strawberries make delicious pies and jams, add to a salad or sundae, but what could be sweeter than just popping one in your mouth!

Windmill Farms

With locations in both Ashburn, Ont., and Port Perry Ont., Windmill Farms is one of the largest mushroom-producing facilities in Canada. It was founded in the 1960s as Greenwood Farms and started off with six small growing rooms that produced 50,000 pounds of mushrooms a year. Today they are a 415-employee operation that produces fresh mushrooms 365 days a year. This family-run farm grows white, cremini and Portobello mushrooms.

Mangoes from around the world

Baby mango is a smaller variety of mango from Colombia, which once ripe, are delightfully sweet. Unlike other mangoes the skin of the sugar mango is often eaten as it is thin and is slightly bitter, helping to balance out the sweet flesh. Sugar mangoes have little to no fiber. Perfect as a snack.

Crimson peach mango is also known as a Manzanillo mango, this fibreless mango is tree ripened, resulting in a much sweeter and deeper burst of flavour, and arrives ripe and ready to eat! The vibrant crimson skin hides a juicy flesh that has a mix of tropical and peach flavours.

When ripe, this mango is sweet and sour with tropical notes. These are picked unripe and start off green, you'll know they're ripe and ready to eat when the skin turn to a deep yellow with slight wrinkling. Perfect addition to a salad or a morning smoothie!

Tommy Atkins offer that classic mango taste. The flavour is tart with a sweet aftertaste. Flesh is firm which results in a fibrous stringy fruit.

Thai Mango Salad

This Thai take-out favourite is easily made at home. Don't worry about how ripe the mangoes are, it is equally delicious made with green (unripe) mangoes; in fact it is easier to cut an under ripe mango although it is more tart.
