Terry's Orange Chocolate Fudge

Directions:

397 g condensed milk (one tin)
600 g Terry's chocolate orange

Topping:

Terry's chocolate orange chunks
Sprinkles

Line a tin with parchment paper – I would use a 9 inch square tin as it makes a nice depth of fudge! Put the condensed milk and Terry's chocolate orange pieces into a deep heavy based pan and melt on a low heat, stirring often so that the chocolate doesn't catch on the bottom and burn and so that all the ingredients mix together well.

Alternatively, melt the chocolate in the microwave in short bursts, then beat in the condensed milk with a spatula until smooth and combined. Pour into the tin and smooth over the mixture – store in the fridge for an hour or so. Sprinkle on some orange sprinkles, and any spare bits of Terry's chocolate orange!

Leave the fudge to set for at least 3-4 hours, or overnight! Once set – remove from the tin portion and then return to the fridge for another couple of hours to finish setting – ENJOY!
