I AM THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT
I enter the home of poverty and cause pale-faced children to open wide their eyes in wonder.
I cause the aged to remember their youth...and to laugh.
I cause the eager feet to climb dark stairways with filled baskets, leaving behind hearts amazed at the goodness of the world.
I cause the prodigal to pause and send to anxious family some little token of love.
I enter dark prison cells, causing scarred manhood to remember what might have been and pointing to better days ahead.
I enter the home of pain, and the lip that are too weak speak simply tremble in silent, eloquent gratitude.
In a thousand ways, I cause this weary old world to look up into the face of God and, for a few moments, forget everything that is small and wretched.
You see, I am the Christmas Spirit
