Protein Packed Healthy Chocolate Crinkle Cookies

- 1 Scoop Chocolate Protein
- 2 Tbsp. Oat Flour
- 3 1/2 Tbsp. Unsweetened Applesauce
- 3 Tbsp. Dark Chocolate, melted
- Pinch of salt
- 1 Tbsp. Unsweetened Cocoa Powder
- 2 Tbsp. Coconut Sugar or Regular Brown Sugar
- 2 Tbsp. Creamy Peanut Butter or Favorite Nut Butter
- 1 Tsp. Baking Soda
- Powdered Sugar or Powdered Sugar Substitute for Coating

Instructions

1. Add the peanut butter and dark chocolate to a small bowl and microwave for about 30 seconds until melted and smooth.
2. Add to a large mixing bowl along with all of the other chocolate cookie ingredients EXCEPT the protein powder (that ingredient needs to be added last for proper consistency). Mix everything up until it forms a thick & sticky dough.
3. Mix in your protein powder last to thicken the mixture into a workable cookie dough. You may need to use your hands to mix until there is no dry powder left.
4. Refrigerate the dough for one hour to firm up. Chilling the dough helps prevent the cookies from spreading too thin during the baking process.
5. After the dough has chilled, preheat your oven to 350° F.
6. Break off small pieces of the dough and roll them into balls. I made 8 cookies out of my dough, but you can make more or less depending on the size you would like.
7. Roll each dough ball in powdered sugar to completely coat, place them on a cookie sheet, then bake for 8 minutes.
8. Remove the cookies from the oven and immediately press the cookies down with your fingers or a spatula to flatten them and create the crinkle effect.
9. Let the cookies cool for about 10 minutes to firm up inside, then enjoy!
