Make even more delicious meals with

THANKSGIVING LEFTOVERS.

SQUASH & APPLE SOUP

• Take 2 cups of leftover squash (can be diced, roasted or pureed), 2 peeled and diced apples and simmer with 2 cups of vegetable broth - or whatever you may have on hand.
• When apples are soft, add in 1 tsp. of grated ginger (optional) and puree the soup until smooth.
• Season with salt and pepper to taste.

STUFFED SQUASH BOATS

• Using delicata squash, halve and scoop out the insides of the squash.
• Take your favorite leftover ingredients from Thanksgiving and layer them into the squash, making sure to drizzle gravy over the top.
• Bake covered for 30 minutes, until the squash is tender.

TURKEY HASH SKILLET

• Take any leftover cooked vegetables (potatoes, carrots, onions, squash) and chop any large pieces into smaller chunks. Sauté everything in a large skillet with butter.
• Dice up some leftover turkey and add a few tablespoons of gravy or chicken broth.
• Season with salt and pepper and sauté until a little crispy.
